

Title: JCV & SHS

Author: Chamberlain Felix

---

On this day we, the Kingdom of Stormhaven,
along with our brothers and sisters of the Jhelom Council of Valor do enter into a sacred bond of friendship and honor.

It is our sincere hope that the bonds forged here today shall serve to support and enrich our two great states, and,
indeed to better the whole of Britannia under the virtues and the light.

It is with the best wishes and the well being of both our great
kingdoms in mind that forthcoming promises are made.
Under the alliance we two great nations do

agree to the following:

I. We agree to provide military support, as requested, to one another in time of need against common enemies.

II. We agree to further the prosperity of our two kingdoms by nurturing mutual trade
and commerce.

III. We agree to share information learned regarding the welfare of both parties between both parties.

IV. We agree that there shall be no aggression toward one another for as long as this alliance exists.

V. We agree to grant right of passage to members of each party through out all lands owned by either party.

VI. We agree that any violation of the alliance in spirit or in letter will result in the dissolution of the alliance.

The Jhelom Council of Valor and the Kingdom of Stormhaven do both enter into and agree to this alliance under free will.
